

DIFFERENT SLEEVE DESIGN

The best study of album artwork, its history and the vital part it has played in marketing known to me is that of Martin Chilton:

It cannot be said that contributors to Ventures product stand out from the crowd, though perhaps some fans of a certain age will view the garish productions of UK designers (see below) as something to drool over; was the same individual or team one wonders responsible for the lion images of the 1969 More Golden Greats?
